

Republic of Serbia
MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE AND ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

AMBASSADE DE FRANCE EN SERBIE

Empowered lives. Resilient nations.

50
YEARS

Climate Smart Development at Local Level in the Republic of Serbia

National consultations on low-carbon development planning at local level

Date: 26 October 2016

Venue: Institut français de Belgrade, Zmaj Jovina 11, Belgrade

09.30 – 10.00	Registration
10.00 – 10.30	Welcome remarks Stana Bozovic, State Secretary, Ministry of Agriculture and Environmental Protection H.E. Christine MORO, Ambassador of the French Republic in Serbia H.E. Driss HACHAQ, Charge d'Affaires a.i, Embassy of the Kingdom of Morocco in Serbia H.E. Irena Vojackova-Sollorano, Resident Representative of the United Nations Development Programme
10.30 – 10.50	National Goals in combating Climate Change – building partnerships Danijela Bozanic, Ministry of Agriculture and Environmental Protection
10.50 – 11.10	Climate Smart Development at Local Level – moving from project to national policy Miroslav Tadic, UNDP Vesa Rutanen, expert
11.10 – 11.30	Mechanisms to support innovative solutions for climate smart development at local level Jonathan Slater, expert
11.30 – 11.50	EIT-Climate KIC, an international climate innovation initiative and Climathon Isabel Airas, Serbian Chamber of Commerce and Industry
11.50 - 12.10	Swiss support to municipalities in Serbia Ana Pajkovic, Swiss Cooperation Office Serbia
12.10 – 12.30	Climate-Smart Solutions of City of Helsinki Sonja-Maria Ignatius, City of Helsinki, Finland
12.30 – 13.20	Lunch
13.20-14.00	The role of CSOs as a bridge between the national policy and local climate actions Mirko Popovic, Belgrade Open School &amp; Aleksandar Macura, RES Foundation Duska Dimovic and Goran Sekulic, WWF
14.00– 15.30	Discussion and conclusions Possibilities and perspectives for low carbon development at municipal level Private sector interests for investments in combating climate change Serbian Chamber of Commerce, local self-governments, businesses, CSOs and other stakeholders